some of the most rewarding pages in Henry Miller's books concern his self education as a writer he tells as few great writers ever have how he set his goals how he discovered the excitement of using words how the books he read influenced him and how he learned to draw on his own experience having made his reputation in the 1940s and 50s arthur miller continued to write into the twenty first century producing his final play in 2004 the year before his death with little critical academic or theatrical attention being paid to his plays after 1968 s the price he had one of the longest late periods in literary history this book brings new attention to miller s writing from this period analysing 5 plays the archbishop s ceiling some kind of love story clara and the ride down mt morgan resurrection blues and a host of essays to highlight the influence of postmodernism on his work using relevant novels and films these plays are situated within the context of their cultural moments to show that miller remained an engaged aware and contemporary writer until his death leading a burgeoning self critical moment in composition studies and writing program administration postcomposition is a fundamental reconsideration of the field that attempts to shift the focus away from pedagogy and writing subjects and toward writing itself in this forceful and reasoned critique of many of the primary tenets and widely accepted institutional structures of composition studies sidney i dobrin delivers a series of shocks to the system meant to disrupt the pedagogical imperative and move beyond the existing limits of the discipline dobrin evaluates the current state of composition studies underscoring the difference between composition and writing and arguing that the field s focus on the administration of writing students and its historically imposed prohibition on theory greatly limit what can be understood about writing instead he envisions a more significant approach to writing one that questions the field s conservative allegiance to subject and administration and reconsiders writing as spatial and ecological using concepts from ecocomposition spatial theory network theory complexity theory and systems theory postcomposition lays the groundwork for a networked theory of writing and advocates the abandonment of administration as a useful part of the field he also challenges the usefulness of rhetoric in writing studies showing how writing exceeds rhetoric postcomposition is a detailed consideration of how posthumanism affects the field s understanding of subjectivity it also tears at the seams of the contingent labor problem as he articulates his own frustrations with the conservatism of composition studies and builds on previous critiques of the discipline dobrin stages a courageous and inevitably polemical intellectual challenge to the entrenched ideas and assumptions that have defined composition studies
